Sir

I have the honour to state that Mr B Alasingrachar, Chief Officer on Rs 100/- + C A 25/-, Shimoga Municipality will attain the age of superannuation on 30-9-1943 The Town Municipal Council, Shimoga, have in their Special Meeting held on 1-9-1943 resolved that extension of service by one year from 30-9-1943 may be granted to this Chief Officer, a copy of which is enclosed The President Town Municipal Council, Shimoga, has in his letter No C2 -24/43-44 dated 2-9-1943 reported that the services of this Chief Officer are very necessary in the Municipality, as he is an experienced Officer, who is doing responsible work, such as work connected with the Municipal food grains Depot and other important work, that if a new Officer is now sent to this Municipality, it would be very difficult for him to know the local situation and attend to such responsible work and has therefore recommended for granting this Chief Officer an extension of service by one year from 30-9-1943

2 Mr B Alasingrachar, Chief Officer, Shimoga Town Municipalit is a very experienced Officer and is doing very good work He has now been entrusted with commandeering work in connection with the Scheme of acquisition of food grains and is also in charge of Municipal Food Grains Depot This Chief Officer, though aged 55 years is healthy and is physically fit to be continued in Service, as an Executive Officer

3 In the circumstances, I agree with the recommendations made by the President Town Municipal Council, Shimoga, and recommend that
